

Mortgages Round Table

Landmark House, Nottingham, UK

Thursday 22nd January 2008

Agenda

- 09.30                    Registration
- 10.00                    Storm clouds over the economy and the financial sector in turmoil – where next for mortgages?
Peter Gutmann, Managing Consultant, Experian Business Strategies
- 10.30                    Portfolio Insight & benchmarking
Katherine Meredith, Senior Benchmarking Consultant, Experian Decision Analytics
- 11.00                    Coffee Break
- 11.15                    Maintaining credit quality in difficult times: Can they really afford it?
As the economy moves into recession market conditions are becoming increasingly difficult. Do you have the right scores in place, are your strategies effective? This presentation will examine the needs of running a business, maintaining credit quality, and lending responsibly.
Paul Russell, Director Analytical Solutions, Experian Decision Analytics
- 11.45                    To Seize or Not to Seize
The decision to keep an impaired customer on portfolio can either be delaying the inevitable or the first step towards intelligent rehabilitation. This session will examine the business impact of accelerating repossession or attempting to manage the exposure.
Mark Keyworth, Global Consultant, Experian Decision Analytics
Stewart Garrish, Global Consultant, Experian Decision Analytics
- 12.30                    Regulation and all that.....
Regulatory Changes and Mortgage Lenders. Sale of book – What you can and cannot do with data. Mortgage Searches, can we ever get agreement
Gillian Key-Vice, Director of Regulatory Affairs, Experian
- 13.00                    Lunch
- 14.00                    Interactive Discussion – Q&A Session
Session that allows for lively discussion on topics raised by attendees
- 15.00                    End of the day